

PRIVACY POLICY

This privacy policy refers to the European Builders Confederation AISBL obligations in relation to the processing of personal data pursuant to applicable privacy legislation and more specifically to the Belgian Privacy Act (Act of 8 December on the protection in relation to the processing of personal data) and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) (Regulation (EU) 2016/79) as of its implementation on 25 May, 2018.

1. Privacy statement

The European Builders Confederation commits to keep any personal data it receives related to the identity and personal life of a natural confidential in accordance to the conditions and restrictions set out in the GDPR.

2. Processing of Personal Data through the website

The European Builders Confederation does make use of cookies on its website. The gathered information will not be used for commercial and/or marketing purposes, but only for informative ones and statistics.

The European Builders Confederation's website may provide referrals - including hyperlinks - to websites of third parties and/or social media. The European Builders Confederation cannot be held accountable or liable for any processing of Personal Data via these websites or social media.

3. Processing of Personal Data in the framework of a professional relationship

The European Builders Confederation will process any Personal Data it would receive in the context of its professional relationship with any third party in full compliance with EU and Belgian applicable privacy legislation, i.e. the Belgian Privacy Act (Act of 8 December on the protection in relation to the processing of personal data) and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) (Regulation (EU) 2016/79) as of its implementation on 25 May, 2018.

The European Builders Confederation will only collect Personal Data which are strictly necessary to achieve the purposes for which the Personal Data have been collected.

The European Builders Confederation will not keep Personal Data any longer as needed for achieving the purposes for which the Personal Data have been collected or obtained, except if it is obliged to do so by law and/or professional rules of conduct.

4. Explicit Consent

The European Builders Confederation uses any possible means to collect data, such as emails, agreements, subscribe/unsubscribe procedures, etc. in order to get explicit consent in gathering/storing personal data.

The European Builders Confederation will use these data:

- To transfer Personal Data to third parties for so far it enters within the scope of its objectives and this transfer is relevant and appropriate.
- For third party transfers which shall typically include transfers justified by its objectives.
- The European Builders Confederation may in this context transfer Personal Data to countries and regions outside the European Economic Area with or without data protection rules similar to those applicable in the European Union. The European Builders Confederation shall, to the extent possible, seek guarantees from the relevant third party with regards to adequate protection and security of the Personal Data it receives from The European Builders Confederation.
- To keep the European Builders Confederation's members, stakeholders and supporters informed about what the European Builders Confederation may consider relevant or interesting for them as well as of the European Builders Confederation's activities, events, services and newsletters by normal post and/or by e-mail to the professional postal/respectively email addresses, as well as via professional reputable internet platforms, such as LinkedIn and similar.

5. Access to Personal Data

Any person who has submitted Personal Data about him/herself to The European Builders Confederation may at any time request to access, verify, amend or delete his/her Personal Data or parts of it.

The request can be made by sending an e-mail to secretariat@ebc-construction.eu or by post at the European Builders Confederation EBC, rue Jacques de Lalaing 4, 1040 Brussels. The European Builders Confederation will respond as soon as possible to the request.

Any other requests, questions, comments or observations regarding this Privacy Policy in particular are welcomed and can also be addressed at here above mentioned addresses.

6. Changes to the Privacy Policy

The European Builders Confederation may modify or amend this Privacy Policy from time to time at its discretion and in particular (but not only) to comply at all times with changing privacy legislation(s). The European Builders Confederation encourages to regularly reviewing Privacy Policy on its updates.